

Home Alone: Smart Living for Singles

Monday, April 20 at 6:30 p.m.

Join us at this special event as your host Bridgette Bornstein leads us in an engaging evening that will answer your questions about living single. Having worked in just about every form of media—from TV and radio to magazine and the web—Bridgette is the ideal emcee and moderator for tonight's event. This will be a fun and informative evening beginning with socializing, wine and cheese. We will have several experts participating in a highly interactive forum on topics that concern you. Feel free to bring your questions!

Bridgette Bornstein

As a Minneapolis/St. Paul TV news reporter and anchor, Bridgette is currently working for WCCO-TV. She has also worked for KSTP-TV and has appeared on CBS News, ABC News, CNN and Court TV. Bridgette has lived in several major cities and knows firsthand what it is like to navigate life on her own. She has owned her first home for nearly three years and is still waiting for that perfect moment to unpack the rest of her moving boxes. Bridgette is quick-witted and would like to believe she is getting funnier as the years go on.

This evening's panelists include:

✓ Brenda Yearley | Get It Together

Brenda helps her clients save time and money by helping them become and stay clutter-free. She organizes home and office spaces, kids rooms, garages, kitchens, and so much more. She is a member of the National and Minnesota Association of Professional Organizers.

Brenda's topics include these and more:

- Why do we have clutter?
- Getting and keeping organized
- Where do I begin?

✓ Tom Harer | Bell Mortgage

Tom has been in the financial services industry for sixteen years. He is an excellent resource for the single client who has questions about purchasing or refinancing a home.

Tom's topics include these and more:

- Learn about the new first-time home-buyer tax credit
- Tax benefits of owning vs. renting
- Understanding your credit

✓ Mary Murray | First Impressions Home Staging

Mary has been featured in the Star Tribune. Her clients range from individuals to home builders and Parade of Home models.

Mary's topics include these and more:

- How design has become an affordable service for anyone
